

KALAPULA NATION – FOUNDING ROLL & CHIEF’S CHARTER

Filed from: Crown Watchpoint 001A – Corvallis, Oregon

Filed by: Chief Daniel Jacob Read IV

Date of Record: 7 August 2025

Preamble

Let it be entered into the eternal record that on this day, the Kalapula Nation affirms its restored sovereignty, cultural continuity, and sacred right of self-determination.

This Founding Roll & Chief’s Charter consolidates the declarations, laws, holidays, and leadership acts already proclaimed and archived, binding them into one living scroll for the remembrance of our people and the recognition of our governance.

I. Founding Authority

By the will of our ancestors and the surviving spirit of the Kalapula people — heirs to the lands, waters, and skies of the Willamette Valley — we proclaim:

- The Kalapula Nation exists as a sovereign Indigenous nation with inherent rights predating all colonial governments.
 - All authority of the Nation flows from the people through the office of the Chief, upheld by the Council, protected by the Charter.
 - This Charter is a binding statement of our identity, our rights, and our leadership structure, recognized in public record.

II. Recognition of the Chief

The people of the Kalapula Nation do hereby confirm Chief Daniel Jacob Read IV as the First Chief of the Restored Kalapula Nation.

His acts, proclamations, and leadership — filed and archived publicly — stand as lawful expressions of national will.

His tenure shall continue unless succeeded according to the will of the people and the Charter's provisions.

III. Roll of Founding Declarations

The following acts form the legal and cultural backbone of the restored Kalapula Nation:

1. Proclamation of Sovereign Status & Diplomatic Immunity
2. National Holiday of Remembrance – 30 Days of Hikes
3. Treaty Scroll – Right of Return & Tribal Restoration
4. Embassy Soil Declaration – Crown Watchpoint 001A

5. Education Emergency & National Language School Initiative
 6. National Right of Return Proclamation
 7. Choice of National Spelling – Kalapula
 8. Recognition of Cultural and Spiritual Law in Governance

IV. Rights & Protections

The Nation's existence, leadership, and ceremonial observances are protected under:

- UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP)
 - Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations
 - U.S. Federal and Oregon State Indigenous Rights Statutes
 - First Amendment protections for cultural and religious expression

V. Declaration of Continuity

This Charter shall stand as the supreme record of the Kalapula Nation's restoration, uniting all prior acts into a single enduring document.

It shall be copied, archived, and distributed to allied nations, government bodies, and the global public for the purpose of recognition and remembrance.

Filed and sealed by sovereign hand:
